

Drag Queen Bingo Bonanza Goes Hollywood

Producers Donate $500 To Artists For A Cause

Terry Barber, founder of the nonprofit Artists for a Cause, received a $500 donation from Beverly Jones of PD-go! Web Solutions and Jake Sanders of Curtain Call Productions from the show Drag Queen Bingo Bonanza Goes Hollywood held March 22 at Flagler Place in downtown Stuart.

The show features performers Beneva Fruitville and Tamiami Trails who entertain the audience in campy costumes with their own unique brand of song and dance. Audience members play two games of bingo and receive prizes that include show tickets, restaurant certificates and tee shirts.

"The high-energy show is rowdy and unexpected. Each performance has a different theme to keep things interesting," commented Beverly Jones. Moustache March for the Military, a nonprofit that helps military families, will help promote the event and receive a portion of the proceeds.

For more information visit www.curtaincallfl.com.

*Jake Sanders and Beverly Jones donated $500 to Terry Barber of Artists for a Cause from the March 22 show of Drag Queen Bingo Bonanza at Flagler Place.*