

MARTIN COUNTY Hometown News

Vol. 13, No. 34

www.HometownNewsOL.com

Friday, Jan. 23, 2015

Sevin Bullwinkle/staff photographer

Top: Terry Barber, founder and executive director of A4AC, Katie Rodgers, of Palm City, Theatre Director Clayton Phillips of Palm Beach Gardens, Talia Suskauer, president of 'Artists For A Cause', Becca Suskauer of Palm Beach Gardens, and Peter Jones of Palm City, musical director and owner of StarStruck Theatre.

Below: Talia Suskauer, president of Artists For A Cause, Becca Suskauer, student at Dreyfoos School of the Arts and a nominee for a 2014 Outstanding Young Artist mARTie Award, with Katie Rodgers of Palm City, answering guests' questions.

Music salons

The 'Music Salons,' a new program in support of 'Artists for a Cause' (A4AC) featuring young talent, was held at the home of Tim and Maureen Cotter at Mariner Sands in Stuart on Sunday, Jan. 11. The program offers an opportunity for a small group of individuals to gather in a private home and enjoy the performances of exceptionally talented young artists. The funds generated through the Salons support the work of A4AC.

Talia Suskauer, 18, actress, singer, and dancer studying at Dreyfoos School of the Arts, performs for homeowner Maureen Cotter and guests.

Sevin Bullwinkle
staff photographer